

St. Philip's Church Invites You
on a Journey through Scripture Holy Week as Seen Through the Eyes of the Apostle John

Friday, March 19
6:30 PM – 8:30 PM
in the Church

Make this Holy Week a deeper spiritual experience for yourself.

Join Us as Guest Speaker Brian Pizzalato Helps Us:

- Gain a better understanding of Sacred Scripture
- See Christ's offering on the cross as the fulfillment of Old Testament prophecies
- Fully realize Jesus as the Passover Lamb – the true Lamb of God

What to Bring

- A Bible
- A notebook and pen (optional)
- An openness to understand scripture and Holy Week better

---

Brian Pizzalato is the Director of Catechesis, R.C.I.A. & Lay Apostolate, Diocese of Duluth and a faculty member of the Philosophy department of the Maryvale Institute, Birmingham, England. He has written several books and writes regular columns for The Northern Cross of the Diocese of Duluth, The Catholic Herald of the Diocese of Superior, the Catholic News Agency's website, and The Sower, published by the Maryvale Institute. Brian holds an M.A. in Theology and Christian Ministry with a Catechetics specialization and an M.A. in Philosophy from Franciscan University of Steubenville, OH. He is currently pursuing a Masters in Biblical Studies at the Augustine Institute in Denver, CO as well as being a Ph.D. candidate at the Maryvale Institute. Brian is married and has six children.

